Hello, we are DiversEarth.

We lend a helping hand to people who, through their lifestyles, cultures and beliefs, protect nature and its resources.
We work with custodians of lands and waters to enhance the protection, management, and restoration of Sacred Natural Sites.

We support and celebrate innovative cultural practices that benefit nature and biodiversity around the world.

And we engage with faith-based leaders, communities and networks to find culturally appropriate ways of protecting the natural world.
Open, Honest, Compassionate, Happy and Fearless

These are our values and we stick to them, in the way that we work, in the approach that we take and in the way our organisation is structured.

We believe that when good intentions and energy come together, people can achieve great things.
